Wonnapob provides and supplies the best “vitamin enriched rice products” through our up-to-date automatic rice processing equipments. Our products are GMO free and are healthy and safe for the environment.

Homestate Co-operation is a privately owned import and distribution company in Papua New Guinea. Established in 2000 in Lae area, we started out as a small family business when the core business at that time was supplying rice to small grocery stores and schools. Over the last 10 years, the company has grown rapidly and now employs over 150 employees with 4 branches throughout the country, including Port Moresby, Rabaul, Mt. Hagen, and Lae where the main warehouse and office located.

Jasmine rice or Thai Hom-Mali rice, known as Thai fragrant rice, is a long-grain variety of rice that has a unique aroma. When uncooked the grain is translucent, but when cooked it becomes opaque and white. Jasmine rice is containing vitamins B1, B2, niacin, carbohydrates and protein with no gluten
